We will let you know if we have the chamber in stock or at least a time frame when we will be getting the next batch.

If you have a customer who is located outside the continental US, in Hawaii or in Alaska you will need to get a shipping quote. Please include the country, postal code and which chamber you wish to ship. Then you can quote the shipping cost to your customer. Just send an email to stsquotes@gmail.com

Customers can purchase extended warranties anytime their original warranty is in effect. They could purchase an extended warranty the 24th month. Most will usually purchase them at the time of purchase, but we don't want them to feel obligated. When you track your customer's expirations you can always send them a brief email asking if they want to add an extended warranty before their original expires.

An additional service we offer is Installation for your customer. The cost is $400 for the Shallow Dive, Military Dive, Dive, and Dive Vertical and $500 for the Grand Dive, Grand Dive Vertical, Grand Dive Pro, and Grand Dive Pro Plus. This option is on the order form. This is a 3rd party service which will schedule the installation time directly with your customer.

The following are some unique features of Summit to Sea chambers that you might want to highlight when talking to perspective customers:

- Two compressors with separate hoses
- Both internal and external gauge (except Shallow)
- Two air release valves and one back up safety valve
- Failed Circuit alarm
- Two zippers – inside air tight no massaging
- Belt and buckle system to ensure safety and extends the life of the zipper
- Larger zipper opening than other chambers
- Customer support – 7 days a week

Just an added note, all of us at Summit to Sea love to hear the stories of your customers who have been helped by our chambers. If it is appropriate please send us an email of the progress your customers are making as a result of using our chambers. Please do not include their full names. Be assured we will not be posting these on our website, this is merely to give encouragement to all of those who help in the production of the chambers. These stories keep us going and we love to share with our vendors how their contribution is changing lives.

We are thrilled to partner with you in changing lives one chamber at a time.
